SUSPECT ARRESTED IN BURGLARY AT MARSHALL FOOD LION

MARSHALL – A Baltimore, Maryland has been charged with the burglary of the Food Lion Store in Marshall Tuesday night. Deputies responded to an alarm at the store on Rt. 17/Winchester Road, Tuesday night, December 10, 2019, at approximately 11:40 p.m. A store employee arrived and accessed the security camera system.

The suspect was observed on security video entering the store after employees had set the alarm and left. The suspect was identified as a subcontractor who regularly cleans the floors inside the store. The suspect took food items before the alarm sounded causing him to flee the building.

A detective obtained warrants charging Troy DeWitte Neal, Jr., of Baltimore, MD, with burglary and petit larceny. On Wednesday night at approximately 9:15 p.m. Neal was observed back in the store by employees however he left as they called the Sheriff's Office. A deputy located Neal near the store. During the investigation Neal provided false identification to the deputy and was subsequently charged with providing false identification to law enforcement in addition to the burglary and petit larceny charges.

Neal was held with no bond at the Fauquier County Adult Detention Center.
